RULES

1. Scholarships can be awarded to schools only. We are unable to make awards to churches, individuals, or homeschools at this time.
2. Scholarships are granted to fund Principles & Choices Student Text Sets only. Scholarship recipients will be responsible for purchasing Teacher Resources and any desired ancillary materials.
3. The program will fund no more than 60% of the cost of student textbook sets. Awarded schools will be responsible for the remaining 40% of their student textbook cost, plus any Teacher Resources and ancillary materials, as well as shipping and handling.
4. Full funding (60%) will only be considered for schools that plan to devote at least 5 teaching days (sessions) in their lesson plans to each book level they are requesting. Schools that will be devoting less time to teaching the content may still be eligible for a lesser amount of funding.
5. If your school receives a scholarship award, participating teachers and students will be required to complete feedback forms provided by Healing the Culture.
6. Schools may receive assistance from the Principles & Choices Scholarship Fund only once. However, if your school is awarded, you may seek our help in locating additional grant funding. Healing the Culture is happy to partner with you to submit funding requests to local foundations.
7. By submitting this Scholarship Application Form, you grant Healing the Culture permission to share the information you provide with our constituents. Sharing your information may help us to secure the funding that you are requesting.
8. Schools that are awarded assistance agree to list "Healing the Culture" among its funders/contributors wherever such recognition would normally appear.
9. If the materials for which the award was granted are not used for their intended purpose within 2 years of receiving the materials, the school will either return the materials in new condition, or reimburse Healing the Culture for the full amount of the award.
10. Schools that are awarded assistance must submit digital photographs and/or video footage of the materials being used in their classrooms by the conclusion of the semester in which the materials are used.
11. Schools that are awarded assistance automatically grant permission to Healing the Culture to use the school's name, project description, photos, video, and other information in Healing the Culture's promotional and donor materials.
